

Community Development is right in its request for a Conditional Use Permit. It is the duty of that agency to establish standards appropriate for this particular mine in order that nearby residences can be reasonably assured that no mishap will occur.

CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons the appeal of Iron Mountain Quarry should be dismissed.

Respectfully submitted,

J. George Follett
Resident of Port Ludlow

